FACTS AND FIGURES ABOUT DRUPA-2020

"Printing & Publishing Equipment Trade Fair"

Drupa is the world's largest trade fair for the printing and publishing industry. This event showcases products as the prints and media industry is changing. New technologies are establishing themselves. With the highlight themes of print, functional printing, packaging production, multichannel, 3D printing, and green printing, we are responding to this change and are opening up new visitor target groups with state-of-the-art technologies and new solutions etc. in the Computer Hardware & Software industry.

drupa provides crucial impulses for print, media, packaging production, and industrial applications – especially in the vertical markets as well. The world's leading trade fair for printing technologies offers outstanding networking opportunities and potential for excellent business dealings. This is where innovations are brought into the market, new business models are developed, and new partnerships are formed.

drupa is an international magnet for visitor target groups from a wide variety of industries. In addition to the printing and packaging industry, there are also groups from vertical markets such as consumer goods, luxury goods, cosmetics, bank and safety technology, and many more. More than half of its visitors come to drupa with specific investment projects.

Main product groups at drupa 2020

Print and packaging production are essential parts of the show. Highlighted topics for drupa 2020 will again focus on functional/industrial printing, 3D printing, as well as future technologies. drupa stands for cutting-edge technologies and new solutions that can open up new target groups from extremely different markets.

International, informative, future-oriented, congenial, and perfectly organized – that's how exhibitors and visitors characterize drupa – no. 1 for printing technologies.
